BURCHELL'S BUSH LODGE

THE KRUGER ON YOUR DOORSTEP

Situated 1km from the Paul Kruger Gate to the Kruger National Park and 350m from the banks of the Sabie River, Burchell's Bush Lodge is a perfectly positioned resort that offers comfortable, well-equipped, self-contained bush lodges, tucked away in attractively landscaped gardens, surrounded by indigenous woodlands. While wildlife and Big 5 game viewing is central to the Burchell's Bush Lodge experience, guests can also explore further afield and experience the picturesque wonders that the Mpumalanga province has to offer.

This geographically diverse area invites you into a world of wonder within each pacing step. Take a trip along the Panarama Route dotted with gorges, waterfalls and forests. Marvel at the beauty the Blyde River Canyon Reserve where you can enjoy some of the most striking views, attractions and stops along including the Three Rondavels viewpoint, God's Window, Lisbon Falls and Ecco Caves.

Whether you're looking for adventure with the family or a relaxing retreat in the bush, it's impossible to not feel a connection to nature while in the magnificent scenery of Mpumalanga.

Golf enthusiasts will be please to know that the Skukuza Golf Course is in close proximity to Burchell's Bush Lodge. This 72par, 9-hole, 18-tee course golf course located in the Kruger National Park on the road to Paul Kruger Gate.
