TC ROBERTSON NATURE RESERVE

Distance: 2.2km | C: 074 792 0605

You will find TC Robertson nature Reserve off the Old Main South Coast Road just north of the Mpambinyoni River bridge. This beautiful reserve is a green lung of the town, a favoured picnic spot with 180 species of bird, blue and grey duiker and a coastal trail popular with those keen on coastal trees. It has 12km of established self-guided trails that wend their way through forest, coastal grasslands, wetlands, river and estuary systems.

SHARK CAGE DIVING

Distance: 7.2km | T: 039 973 2233

This is truly an exciting once in a lifetime experience. Bond with family, friends or colleagues as you get close up to the many species of shark found at Aliwal Shoal. Shark cage diving involves diving in heavy metal cages in the warm waters of Durban's Aliwal Shoal. Shark species that can be found are Blacktip sharks, Dusky Sharks, Spinner Sharks, Tiger and Zambezi Sharks.

CROCWORLD

Distance: 4.1km | T: 039 976 1103

This amazing paradise is spread out over 24ha and laid out in a park-like setting with walkways meandering through it. The indigenous gardens were developed as a showcase and to inspire visitors on how to garden successfully with indigenous plants at home. There are plenty of shady trees and benches if you want to sit down and take in the scenery. This wheelchair-friendly venue is ideal for a family outing and will entertain everyone with a variety of things to do and see. Since the conservation is the main focus of this park, most of the animals and birds you will see here were either born in captivity or injured and are unable to take care of themselves in the wild.

SCOTTBURGH GOLF COURSE

Distance: 1.5km | C: 087 150 1312

This undulating golf course has the most attractive setting with views and sounds of the Indian Ocean. Comparatively short at 5323m it boasts two par 5's and five spectacular par 3 holes, with the par 4 third hole being the most talked about hole on the course. Like all coastal golf courses, Scottburgh can become quite tricky in the wind but one of the most spectacular shots is from the par 4 18th hole, where one flies the drive over towering trees, into the wild blue to hopefully drop onto the fairway below.

HORSES AND HEALING

Distance: 24.5km | C: 082 623 3783
