WHAT TO PACK

This tropical province is acclaimed for having an average of 320 days of sunshine yearly. KwaZulu-Natal experiences high summer temperatures, averaging around 30°C and accompanied by a marked humidity.

SUMMER PACKING LIST

Summers are hot, humid and sticky in this province. This is also the season during which most of the rain occurs, which means having to be well prepared in terms of what to wear. The wrong wardrobe will lead to massive discomfort and ruin the impact of this beautiful destination.

Chose clothing that is lightweight and that allows air to flow freely onto the body. The sun in KwaZulu-Natal is powerful and every measure should be taken to protect the eyes and skin from its harmful effects.

- Swimming costumes are essential for the pool and beach.
- A hat and sunglasses.
- Shorts, skirts, tops, t-shirts and summer dresses that are cool and comfortable.
- Comfortable walking shoes.
- An umbrella or light raincoat.
- SPF50 sunscreen that does not block the pores and allows sweating.

WHAT TO PACK

WINTER PACKING LIST

Winters (from June-August) can be very different in the various areas of KZN. Coastal winters are warm and comfortable.

- Long, warm pants.
- Long-sleeved cotton shirts and t-shirts.
- Warm jersey or jacket.
- Warm, waterproof walking shoes.

SPRING & AUTUMN PACKING LIST

Spring (from September-November) and autumn (from March-May) in KwaZulu-Natal are pleasant. Along the coast, they are not all that different from summer. Add a pashmina or wrap to your wardrobe for an easy alternative.
